

Kennington

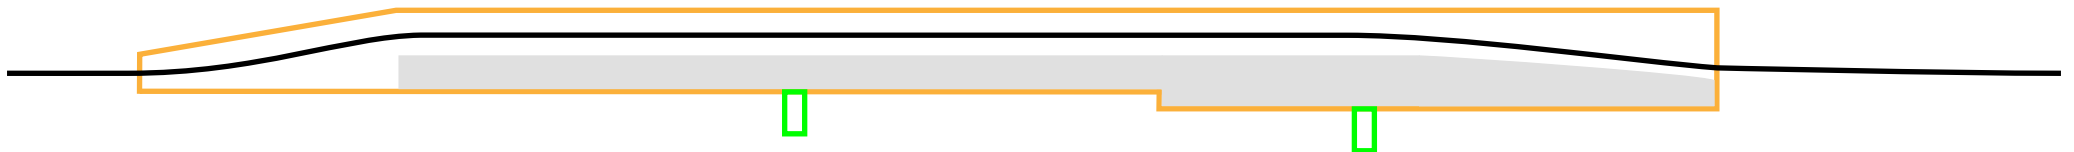

to lifts

NB

layout in 1890

the track passes through the station in a straight line the exit leads straight to the lifts

layout today

The platform has been extended southwards
The platform and track have been swapped over to give cross-platform interchange with the Charing Cross branch New exits are in place. The old exit, now on the trackside wall, is blocked off